

Chr. Powell: I respectfully request that you postpone your decision on the communication consolidation rules until there has been more opportunity for public input. I feel such consolidation will not be good for our democracy, local news information, etc. The internet and satellite TV will not be a substitute for independent local or even much state and national public information communication.